

About Us

About This Website

Indigenous Australia has been online since the late 1990's. The site was originally planned as an important addition to the unique independent guide to Australia, FrogandToad - now called Travel Around Australia

Indigenous culture, history and politics had always been planned for, but as FrogandToad was written from its' original owner's experiences of traveling Australia, it soon became clear that the subject matter of the history and culture of Australia's original inhabitants could not be reiterated from books and deserved a dedicated site. Hence the Indigenous Australia site was born. Used for information and research by students and educational institutions worldwide, the Indigenous Australia has quickly established itself as a valuable resource on Aboriginal art, history and culture in Australia.

2009 sees Indigenous Australia relaunched as "indigenousAustralia.info" with a new, fresh look and added features. In addition, a freely downloadable .pdf version of the site will soon be made available, along with a number of other features including downloadable educational resources and curriculum information for use by students and educational institutions worldwide. Site Contributors & Authors

Mayrah Yarraga

Mayrah is the principal writer for Indigenous Australia - her work comes from many years of educating government, business, schools and universities on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Culture. As well as educating the public through her business Dinjerra Artwork and Educational Products, Mayrah is an Aboriginal artist. All the drawings on Indigenous Australia have been designed by her.

Walibra Watts

Owens the company Emu Tracks, an Aboriginal production company. You can access the Emu Tracks website here .Since joining FrogandToad's Indigenous Australia, Walibra has contributed by writing the festivals page and reviewing Indigenous artists, musicians, actors and singers.

If you would like to include a festival or event to be included on the site (there is no fee for Indigenous events) please see our Festivals page , or send information to

Indigenous Australia:
PO Box 3143
Bangor NSW 2234
Australia.